In this month's newsletter: TLR, Journey With, Being "Homeless"

Hey Friends,

It's been over 2 months since my last newsletter. April, May and June are Gone With the Wind (Oops, should I have cancelled that reference?). Needless to say, our world has seemingly turned upside down since our last update, so let's get you caught-up.

Reset: When our church in South Florida was "forced" to shut-down, we agreed that the Kingdom of God stops for nothing; so after a few weeks of prayer and pull-back, we began holding meetings in our home. For the last several months we have seen salvations, baptisms, healings, deliverances from demonic oppression, and people receiving the fullness of the Holy Spirit. In short, we have been busy taking the FULL Gospel to the streets and making disciples.

TLR: A few years ago I ran across this man from Denmark on youtube preaching a Gospel of repentance and freedom on the streets, healing the sick, casting out demons, and baptizing new believers in water and Spirit. During the Quarantine, Julie and I rediscovered the ministry of TLR (thelastreformation.com) and were able to connect with some other disciples in our area that have joined with the TLR movement. Since this time, we have been to 2 KickStarts (one in Jacksonville and the Open House in North Carolina at the TLR training Center). If you want to know what TLR is about, I encourage you to watch this amazing movie www.thelastreformationmovie.com

Change of Plans Sensing a move from the Holy Spirit, Julie and I sold many of our possessions, put the rest in storage, packed-up the truck and decided to hit the road to follow the Holy Spirit (what the on what the ancient Celtic Church called a Wild Goose Chase – based on John 3:8 – "The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

Where We Are Now As of the time I'm writing this update (July 7th) we have just returned from the TLR camp-meeting and are visiting Julie's parents in Greenville, South Carolina. We will be heading to Boone, North Carolina for an intensive training session at our friend's retreat to pray and possibly prepare for a mission to Nicaragua.

Journey With I have created a new page on my website for those of you who may be interested in following our journey and partnering with us as we endeavor to follow the Holy Spirit and make disciples! Check it out here!

Being "Homeless" When our lease ended on June 29th, we were praying about where we would land next. We could not discern a clear path, other than knowing we were to attend the TLR camp meeting in North Carolina. So instead of locking ourselves into another lease or mortgage, we decided to follow the instructions that God gave to Abraham in Genesis 12, “Go to the land that I will show you...” I don’t want to mislead you, it’s been a challenge to live out of suitcases, storage units, tents and truck tarps, for the last couple of weeks with two small children, but the sense of excitement and freedom we feel as we follow the Lord’s leading day-by day has been an incredible experience. We are learning what it means to take up our cross DAILY, give God our “Full – Yes”, and wait for His instructions as He lovingly guides us into each new assignment.

What I'm reading now: The Call of Jesus by Torben Sondergard. This book will transform you and empower you to preach the FULL Gospel. I cannot recommend this book enough for those of you who want to Obey Jesus’ call to make disciples. In its profound yet easy to understand instruction, Torben unlocks the secrets of Jesus’s instruction to make disciples found in Luke 10. If you’ve ever been compelled to share your faith and make disciples but just don’t know how to do it practically and with the Power of God, this book is a must read! Also, I’m continuing to read the Book of Acts to see and understand what the church is supposed to look like and how it is supposed to function.

What I’m watching: I recently watched Rambo: Last Blood with my Father-in-Law. It was about justice being brought to Human traffickers, which I think is ironic in that we are seeing Human Trafficking rings throughout the world being exposed and brought to justice as a result of the prayers of the church and the actions of brave men and women exposing this incredible dark practice. I can’t recommend this movie in good conscience because of the over the top violence depicted, however, it does animate the longing for justice that so many have desired to come upon this great Evil in our world. I also recently watched MIDWAY, and incredible depiction of the battle of Midway in WW2 and the events that led up to this heroic fight. I feel that our nation is at a crossroads and that the we too are facing a battle that will decide the fate of the war. So, be at your posts and be listening for your marching orders from the King! Pray without ceasing and start doing the stuff!

6. If you haven’t been to my YOUTUBE Channel, check it out! I have recently made a few posts dealing with the current crisis unfolding in our world and the Church, including “Line in the Sand”, “One Blood”, and the “Harvest is in the Church”

Thanks for reading. If you like this newsletter, and want to support it, forward it to someone who's like it. If you're seeing it for the first time, you can subscribe here!
